

Dildar Muhammad

RN, BScN (AKU), PhD Nursing (University of Liverpool)

QUALIFICATIONS

PhD in Nursing University of Liverpool, UK.

(Scholarship of Khyber Medical University faculty development projects, funded by Higher Education Commission (HEC) Government of Pakistan).

Sep 2010- May 2015.

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

2004-2008: Aga Khan University, Karachi, Pakistan.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Assistant Professor Nursing

Institute of Nursing Sciences Khyber Medical University Peshawar

August 03, 2015-till date

Instructor Nursing Education Services: Nursing Education services Shifa International

Hospital Islamabad.

December 2009-August 2010.

Registered Staff Nurse: Aga Khan University hospital Karachi Pakistan

Aug 2008- October 2009:

Emergency Room, Occupational Health Nursing and Home Health Nursing.

PROFESSIONAL LICENSE

Registered Nurse, Pakistan Nursing Council (PNC License # A-47471)

CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

- Dec 2008 Research Abstract Presentation on “Factors affecting Adult Cardiac Health- A cross sectional Study at Garden Karachi” at National Health Science Research Assembly, AKUH
- Aug 2008 Literature Review/ Concept Paper Abstract Presentation on “Factors Associated with Suicide in Young adult Pakistani Population” in National Symposium on Injury in Developing World from Prevention to Care at AKU
- Aug 2008 Concept Paper Presentation on “Pattern and Mechanism of Bomb Blast Injuries” as co-author in National Symposium on Injury in Developing World from Prevention to Care at AKUH
- April 2008 Concept Paper Presentation on “Bird Flu; A Potential Pandemic the need to increase Public Health Awareness in Pakistan” in International Symposium on Best Infection Control Practices at AKUH

PROJECTS

- Hospital based conference on ‘New Heights of critical care’ at Shifa International Hospital Islamabad in 2010.
- Hospital based project on “Combating complaints/ increasing patients satisfaction” and “Customer Satisfaction” at Nursing Educational Services of AKUH as a student of Management and Leadership Course in 2008.